Hi Frank,

It's a typo. The permit actually expires 02/29/2020. Thanks for bringing it to my attention. I'll get it corrected and have the revised permit e-mailed to you.

Hi Sara,
I was going over the Air Quality Permit for the Arlington location and I notice that the permit still has the same expiration date: 02/28/2015. Please let me know if this is a typo error.
Thank you,

Hi Frank,
We are proceeding with the permit while we wait for a State decision regarding the chicken waste processing operation. The attached documents are the same as the ones I sent previously except that the 535 HP engine listed as generator G-1 was removed and the allowable operating hours were increased to 360 hours per year. Please let me know no later than Monday 8/25/14 if you have any questions. If the State decides that chicken waste processing needs to be covered in the permit, we will request that you submit a permit modification at that time.
Thanks,
